CORAM : S.J. VAZIFDAR, J.
DATED : 8TH AUGUST, 2007

P.C. :

The Second Appeal raises no question of law. The issue as to whether the Plaintiffs are the owners of the suit property or not has been dealt with in great detail by both the Courts. The learned Judges have in fact referred to all the circumstances and come to the conclusion that the Plaintiffs have not established their ownership over the disputed lane. They have also referred to certain facts such as the execution of documents by the Plaintiffs themselves, which would indicate that even prior to the filing of the suit they claimed no right in respect of the suit property.

2. In the circumstances, the Second Appeal is
